

This stunning English Victorian home, spanning approximately 3,000 sq. ft, is a rare find that retains many of its original period features, offering a wealth of potential for a discerning buyer eager to restore it to its former grandeur. The double-fronted facade, characteristic of Victorian architecture, greets you with an inviting symmetry. Upon entering, you are immediately struck by the timeless beauty of the Minton flooring that graces the entrance hall, a testament to the craftsmanship of the era.

The interior is rich with original timber panelling, adding warmth and character to the spacious rooms. High ceilings adorned with intricate coving further enhance the grandeur, while large bay windows flood the home with natural light, creating an airy and elegant atmosphere. The expansive layout is ideal for a family, offering ample space for both everyday living and entertaining.

Surrounding the home, mature gardens provide a serene retreat, perfect for outdoor activities and relaxation. A charming balcony overlooks these gardens, offering an additional space to enjoy the outdoors. This home is truly must be viewed to be fully appreciated.
