

This attractive three-bedroom stone-built detached home offers spacious living accommodation, together with gardens to the front and side, and the added benefit of an attached garage. The side garden also offers the potential to create off-road parking, subject to any necessary permissions.

The property is ideally positioned within the sought-after village of Ipstones, which is surrounded by beautiful Staffordshire Moorlands countryside and is particularly popular with those seeking a quieter rural lifestyle. The village benefits from a good range of local amenities, including a shop, primary school and pubs, whilst the nearby towns of Cheadle and Leek provide a wider selection of shops, supermarkets, schools and leisure facilities. The surrounding area is renowned for its countryside, walking routes and attractive scenery, while the A52 and A50 provide convenient commuter links.

The accommodation comprises;- a living room, kitchen diner and rear porch to the ground floor. To the first floor, there are three bedrooms, a family bathroom and a separate shower room.

With its generous accommodation, attractive stone construction, useful garage and potential to create a driveway, this property is well suited to a variety of buyers, including families, first-time buyers and those looking to enjoy village living.

Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the space, potential and location on offer.
