

This well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached home occupies a sizeable plot and enjoys stunning open field views to the rear. Offering generous outdoor space, the property provides a fantastic opportunity for buyers looking for a home with both space and potential.

The property benefits from gardens to both the front and rear, a garage and a variety of large sheds. These versatile spaces offer excellent scope for a range of uses, depending on a prospective buyer's individual requirements, whether that be storage, a workshop, hobbies or additional working space.

Ideally positioned in the popular village of Checkley, the property is well placed for enjoying a peaceful village lifestyle while remaining conveniently located for access to surrounding towns of Cheadle and Uttoxeter, and their amenities. Checkley is a sought-after Staffordshire village, known for its attractive countryside setting and strong sense of community, with a range of local amenities and excellent opportunities for walking and enjoying the surrounding rural landscape.

Although already offering generous accommodation, the property also presents exciting potential for further extension, subject to obtaining the necessary planning and building consents, allowing a future owner the opportunity to adapt and enhance the home to suit their needs.

In brief, the accommodation comprises;- an entrance hallway, spacious living room, dining room and kitchen to the ground floor. To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms, all benefiting from fitted wardrobes, together with a family shower room.

A wonderful home in a desirable village location, combining generous gardens, fantastic countryside views, versatile outbuildings and excellent potential for the future. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all that this property has to offer.
